Terms and Conditions:

1. Upon acceptance of client's application herein, KVB Kunlun Securities (HK) Limited ("KVB Kunlun") will debit the monthly fee from the client's securities account. Such service will be terminated immediately without further notice in case there is insufficient balance in the client's securities account for such debit purpose.
2. The provision of service shall continue until actual receipt of client's written notice of termination by KVB Kunlun.
3. Monthly plan service fee will be charged on a monthly basis in advance and debited on the service start-date. For any service period of less than 1 month, the computation will be rounded up to 1 calendar month.
4. For cancellation or change of service, client is required to give a written notice of not less than 3 working days before the next calendar month.
5. There shall be no refund of any paid fee in case of early termination of service.

Remarks and Risks Disclosure:

1. Despite of KVB Kunlun's effort in providing accurate and reliable information, it is not a guarantee that such information is 100% error-free. KVB Kunlun will not hold any responsibilities for any client's loss and damages arising from any inaccurate, incomplete, distorted, error or missing information or delay in transmission of such information.
2. The internet is, and other electronic media may also be, an inherently unreliable medium of data transmission and communication that consists of security risks, including but not limited to causing incomplete information or error, missing and distorted information that instructions could not be carried out. Such risks shall be fully borne by client. KVB Kunlun and the information provider are free from any liabilities should such situations arise.
3. Client agrees that the information of price quote services is for client's use solely, and undertakes not to provide such information to any third parties.
4. Clients shall be solely and fully responsible for the security of the User ID and password and all instructions entered through the Internet trading system under its securities account.
5. The prices of securities fluctuate, sometimes dramatically. The price of security may move up or down, and may become valueless. It is as likely that losses will be incurred rather than profit made as a result of buying and selling securities. Client should therefore carefully consider whether such trading is suitable in light of its own financial position and investment objectives and if necessary seek appropriate professional advice.
